

The Ideal Stepping Stone for a Commercial Real Estate Career

The Marcus & Millichap Internship is a paid 6-week corporate-sponsored program in which rising college seniors work directly with established, successful agents to prepare for a career in commercial real estate. The Internship will begin in June 2023.

IN THIS ROLE, YOU'LL:

- Receive extensive coaching from agents and brokers and learn about the fundamentals of commercial real estate
- Make career-changing connections through your Marcus & Millichap mentor and networking opportunities with senior agents and management
- Participate in office and team-specific projects, including creating a Broker Opinion of Value (BOV), Offering Memorandum (OM), and contracts
- Attend workshops with agents, intern-only workshops, and informative conversations with senior agents to learn about financing, business development, cold calling, first appointments, underwriting, and capital markets
- Earn a competitive salary while confirming your interest in the commercial real estate profession and bolstering your industry skill set

WE'RE LOOKING FOR PEOPLE WHO ARE:

- » Rising college seniors
  - » Enrolled at an accredited university
- » Pursuing a real estate minor or major or participating in a real estate club or boot camp
